

SPEAK OUT? WHAT ABOUT?

Young people can be powerful forces in the world! If you know what you believe and what you care about, you can speak up and take action to express yourself, inspire others, and make a difference. Use these prompts to help you identify your own values and ideas about things in your life and your world.

Me

These five words describe me:

Three things I like best about myself:

Three things I like least about myself:

These things interest me:

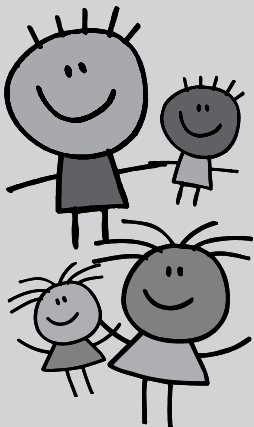

These are some of my talents:

These things make me happy:

These things upset me:

Some of the things I care most about:

My Family

These five words describe my family:

Three things I like best about my family:

Three things I like least about my family:

Things I like to do with my family:

Things about my family that make me happy:

Things about my family that upset me:

If I could change one thing about life with my family, it would be:

SPEAK OUT? WHAT ABOUT?

My School

These five words describe my school:

Three things I like best about my school:

Three things I like least about my school:

Things I like to do at school:

Things about school that make me happy:

Things about school that upset me:

If I could change one thing about my school, it would be:

My Community

These five words describe my community:

Three things I like best about my town:

Three things I like least about my town:

Things I like to do in my town:

Things about my community that make me happy:

Things about my community that upset me:

If I could change one thing about my community, it would be:

My World

These five words describe the world I live in:

Three good things about my world:

Three problems in my world:

If I could change one thing about the world I live in, it would be:

SPEAK OUT! QUOTEFALL

Directions: Build a quotation by selecting from the letters available in the vertical columns. The letters in each column of the puzzle will go into the squares immediately below them, but not necessarily in the order they appear. A black square indicates the end of the word. When you have placed all the letters in their correct squares, the quotation will be readable from left to right.

				P	L	R	I		E					M	O	I
	P	E	H	A	K	E	S	L	H	O	R	U	S	N	A	D	N
U	N	T	M	A	E	S	A	O	T	N	O	R	E	A	K	I	N	E
O	P	E	O	P	N	E	S	W	M	O	S	E	E	A	N	I	S	G

—Thom Harnett

