

CAMAN CANINES

Name: _____

C is for the Coast Guard, which uses helicopters, boats, and ships to watch over U.S. coastlines. It is the only service restricted to the coast of the United States. It does not travel to other parts of the world.

A is for the Air Force, which flies planes, jets, helicopters, and other airborne vehicles into the skies over the U.S. and around the world.

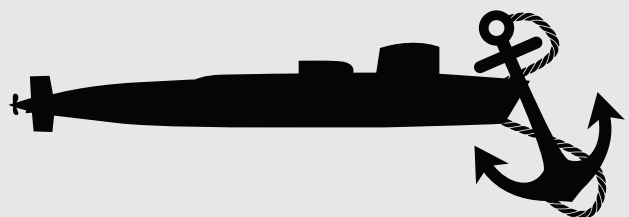

M is for the Marines who work in cooperation with the Navy. The Navy provides the ships to transport the marines to the area where the Marines are deployed in amphibious vehicles, boats, and helicopters.

A is for the Army, which uses helicopters and land-based vehicles like tanks and Humvees in locations in the world where they serve.

N is for the Navy, which uses boats, ships, planes and jets all over the world where our military serve.

All branches use canines to assist in specific types of tasks.
